

July 25, 2008 – Cleary Gull Inc. advised management and raised financing for the management led buyout of Trans-Coil, LLC.

Cleary Gull Inc. is pleased to announce the acquisition of Trans-Coil LLC., by a group of investors led by the company's management team and supported with financing from Centerfield Capital Partners and M&I Marshall and Ilsley Bank. Cleary Gull acted as exclusive financial advisor to management in the transaction.

Trans-Coil is a leading developer and manufacturer of variable frequency drive peripherals, which are commonly used to control electric motors used in wastewater treatment, oil and gas industries, chemical plants and a variety of other industrial applications. Trans-Coil's products enhance drive performance by eliminating distortions and voltage peaks in the power supply, reduced maintenance and downtime as well as energy savings.

Centerfield Capital Partners is a private equity firm that provides subordinated debt and equity financing to middle market companies, primarily in the Midwest. Centerfield invests in profitable companies generating more than $10 million in revenue to facilitate changes in ownership, recapitalizations or growth. Investments are generally between $2 and $15 million. With more that $175 million in capital under management in two funds, Centerfield is among Indiana's largest private equity firms, and is the state's largest mezzanine provider to lower middle market companies.

Cleary Gull (www.clearygull.com) is an employee-owned firm providing specialized financial services through two operating divisions: Investment Banking and Investment Management Services. Cleary Gull's investment bankers help clients achieve their financial and business goals by advising on exclusive sales, mergers and acquisitions, raising private debt and equity capital, and other transactions. Cleary Gull's core ideology and mantra is "A Firm Belief in the Entrepreneurial Spirit."